WASHINGTON CITY.

Special to the Star.

Washington, June 17.-The Potter Com mittee met at 10 o'clock this morning and further examined H. C. Clarke, late Secretary to Gov. Kellogg. He was questioned connected with the preparation of the second set of election returns. He said that the paper which Gen. Anderson brought back from Washington, and which was replaced by the second set of electoral returns, he kept in the executive safe, of street, where he attempted to hang himself to a lamp-post, but was secured and locked which he only had the combination key.

Q .- Was it not known to you that Judge Levissee and Geoffrion were not in New Orleans when those papers were signed?

A .- It was not. I only heard of it a long time afterward. Q - You did not sign those signatures, did vou? A .- Most assuredly not.

Q .- Did Gen. Anderson?

A .- I do not know; you will have to ask Gen. Anderson.

Q.-What I want to get at is, who signed hese names? A .- I absolutely know nothing about it. The witness was then discharged, and the

Gen. Noyes' Arrival.

National Associated Press to the Star. New YORK, June 17.—Gen. E. F. Noyes, who arrived Saturday night, was interviewed last evening at his room in the Fifth-avenue Hotel. He denies having ever spoken to or seen McLin until after the decision was rendered in Florida. He regarded McLin simply as a man who had done his duty honesily, and after the de-cision was rendered Gen. Noyes promised to do what he could to secure his appoint-ment to some office. Gen. Noyes says he received but little information relating to the investigation before sailing, and had he known what he has since learned he would hardly have left. "That part of the Potter Resolution referring to me," said Gen. Noyes, "seems to have been based upon more definite than McLin's vague declaration.

Bank Burglary.

A daring attempt was made by burglars between Saturday night and early Sunday morning to rob the Irving National Bank, corner of Greenwich and Warren streets. The burglars effected an entrance to a broker's office directly under the bank and then cut a hole through the ceiling, and in that way reached the main office of the bank. The officer on post heard a noise in the bank about 3 a. m., but before he could summon assistance the burglars had made good their escape, leaving a complete set of tools behind them.

THE HOSTILE REDS.

Sarah Winnemucca's Narrative.

National Associated Press to the Star.

Sheep Ranch, Oregon, June 17.—Sarah Winnemucca, daughter of the head Chief of the Piutes, came in last night. She was sent by Captain Bernard, directed by General Howard, to communicate with the people, and she reports as follows:

She found her father and his sub-chiefs at Oits, Eagan and three bands retained as prisoners by a horde of renegade Bannocks, Nez Perces, Shoshones and others, because they would not join against the whites. The hostiles are very bitter against them. There was a big Council assembled. The hostiles have a strong position near Juniper Lake, in a rugged, mountainous country, and number about seven hundred. Sarah was disguised or she would have been killed. Her brother aided three white men to escape who were to have been killed that night, and he escaped with them. Sarah, her father-in-law, and a few others escaped

SPANISH AMERICA.

Correspondence National Press to the Star

Panama-There is but little news to send | tured. from this Republic, as everything is quiet. The Congress at Bogota will shortly be adjourned. A row occurred in the Cauca re-cently, at a small village known as El Valle, near the Choco, on the Pacific coast, be-tween some gatherers of wory nuts and the friends of an Indian named Gozalles. Over hundred men attacked the nut gatherers with guns. Several of the combatants were killed and others wounded when the nut gatherers retreated to the woods, threatening to return with reinforcements and renew the fight.

Gutemala—Business generally in this Republic and all over the west coast of America, is at a standstill. The Minister of Agriculture made an extensive trip through the departments of the west and reports the condition of the baciendas as remarkably good. The coffee crop will, it is expected, be the largest ever produced in entral America.

Honduras-The commerce of Honduras with New Orleans, during 1877, has been of great importance, considering that the only products exported from this Republic are fruits. The shipment of these amounted in value to over $400,000. There is nothing of note from Salvador or Nicaragau. These Republics are at peace.

coffee crop, which had promised well.

Peru—Commercial affairs in Peru are less encouraging than at the date of the last mail. Business is dull, and transactions of all kinds are limited. Exchange is somewhat in demand, and the price less advantageous to buyers. The advance is said to be the result of combinations. Accounts from Callao report a severe earthquake at Jacua, and in Anca on the night of May 15th the shock was very severe, and created great slarm at both places. A boat arrived great alarm at both places. A bont arrived great alarm at both places. A bont arrived at Callao on the 23d of May belonging to the Italian ship Catherina Chazzaro, which was destroyed by fire. The bont contained eight of the crew. No particulars regarding the burning of the vessel have been published. There are no news of importance from Chili.

Bolivia—The new Ministry have taken charge of their respective portfolios and apparently all is going to the satisfaction of the public. The want of rain in the department of the interior continues to produce a great scarcity of provisions, and in some parts fears are entertained of serious consequences. The cross in the entire consequences. The crops in the entire department are a failure. Provisions are very light. The epidemic still continues. It is called a sort of intermittent fever; nevertheless, those who are attacked die on the third or fourth day as of yellow fever. The latest advices received from Brazil state that in the province of Ceara, in that Empire, the number of deaths from famine exceed daily one hundred.

Every man in the procession wore a red badge with the initials "S. L. P." (Socialistic Labor Party). The column was led by about one hundred members of the Lehr and Wehr Verein in uniform and bearing arms with fixed bayonets. No weapons were displayed by other organizations, but there were numerous red flags in the line, as well as floating from saloons and other houses along the streets, especially in the vicinity of the picnic grounds.

houses along the streets, especially in the vicinity of the picnic grounds.

Banners carried in the parade bore such mottoes as "No Masters, No Slaves;" "All for Each, Each for All;" "Down with Privileged Classes;" "Down with Monopolies;" "Free Men, Free Labor;" "Land Belongs to Society;" "No Rich, No Poor, but All Alike." A large majority of the processionists were of the lowest class of foreigners in the city, who understand neither the English language nor American institutions. The afternoon at the grove was spent in beer-drinking and speech-making, harangues being given in English, German, Scandinavian and Bohemian. There was no disturbance. The police and military no disturbance. The police and military were held in readiness at headquarters, but their services were not needed. No strike

Burgess, and Messrs. Pyle, Akin and L. Hospe are announced to take part in rendering a programme of ex-cellence, variety and beauty. Trains will stop so as to return persons to the city after concert is over.

Railroads All Running.

This is the 17th of June, the day on which it was alleged that all railroad trains in the country were simultaneously to be seized by the Communists and stopped from running.

The announcement created not the least disturbance in the minds of the railroad of-ficials, who in fact took hardly any notice of the matter, as they seemed to be well posted as to the feelings of their employes. They were assured that there would be no trouble, and to-day they were convinced of it. Not a train was stopped, nor was there even talk of such a proceeding, at least in this city.

Two Inquests.

An inquest was held to-day on the body of John H. Hewes, who, last Friday night was found in an unconscious condition on Ludiow avenue by a lady and the watchman of Burnet Woods Park, and who died last Saturday at the Cincinnati Hospital. The Coroner rendered a verdict of death from cerebral apoplexy.

Another inquest was also held on a two and a half-year-old girl, Mary Cunno, who fell over a third-story balustrade last Satur-day evening at Front and Race streets, and broke her skull. A verdict of death from accidental injuries was rendered by the Coroner.

The music was excellent, the audience large and appreciative, and as fine in appearance as any that has yet filled the Hail. Every one spoke in the highest terms of the successful inauguration of cheap music, and other concerts of the sar character are assured.

There was some dissatisfaction because of a misunderstanding as to reserving scata, but that this was clearly a misunderstanding, for which the management can not be blamed, is shown by the following from Mr. Lloyd:

June 20th. Wants to Be Counted In.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Suit will be brought in the Supreme Court to-day by Rli Par-sons, who seeks to be reinstated as Director of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad. He claims to have been counted out at the annual election of the county, held at Parsons, Kansas, on the 15th of May last,

The fact that George Washington's wife never asked him where he had been when he came home late at night, goes a great ways toward accounting for his extreme truthfulness.

A sign on a Rochester street reads: "Joseph Amborn." We do not wish to deny the assertion, but we object to the grave-ean be obtained.
